PROBATION

The defendant is sentenced to probation for a term of:

As to Counts I and II, defendant is placed on eighteen (18) months of supervised probation, said terms to run concurrently.

As to each of Counts I and II, defendant shall pay a fine in the amount of $500 for a total of $1,000, to be paid in monthly installments of not less than $100 per month beginning September 05, 2006, with subsequent payments due by the fifth business day of each month thereafter until paid in full. The Court will waive the interest requirement and any penalties in this case.

As to each of Counts I and II, defendant shall pay a special assessment of $25 to the Crime Victim Fund for a total of $50, payable immediately to the U.S. Clerk of Court.

The defendant shall participate in a substance abuse program as directed by the Probation Office, to include antabuse and drug surveillance, if indicated, and/or inpatient treatment.

The defendant shall not obtain prescription medication without the permission of the Probation Officer, except in case of a medical emergency as deemed necessary by a licensed medical practitioner. The defendant shall report any prescriptions immediately to the Probation Officer, and shall bring the actual prescription container, as directed by the Probation Officer, to the officer or treatment provider for verification of the prescribing medical professional, date, medication, dosage, quantity, purpose, and refill provisions. The defendant shall notify any prescribing medical professional of her substance abuse addiction or dependence history, and shall sign all necessary release documents permitting complete disclosure of information between the prescribing medical professional and the Probation Officer.

The defendant shall notify the U.S. Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing or residence address that occurs while any portion of the financial obligation ordered by the Court remains outstanding. The Court orders that any federal income tax refund payable to the defendant from the Internal Revenue Service will be turned over to the Clerk of Court and applied toward any outstanding balance with regard to the outstanding financial obligations ordered by the Court.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.

- [ ] The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.
- [ ] The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.
- [ ] The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
- [ ] The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in the state where the defendant resides, works, or is a student, as directed by the probation officer.
- [ ] The defendant shall participate in an approved program for domestic violence.

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution, it is a condition of probation that the defendant pay in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment.

Defendant must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.
